“ Such a sad day.....BUT I can hear Barb saying to everyone "move on dont be so sad" and she can hear me saying back to her "too bad Barb were all sad" She was such a good person. She use to make me grape jelly meatballs. Man they where good! Her and Wendy use to drink their Christmas wine. In fact we still have one waiting for her so have some again.....I can still hear that laugh she had. Such a good person. We'll never forget her or the times we all had. Shes not alone in Heaven. Sam and Max are probably laying right next to her.....Kenny & Wendy

Randy,

I just found this news. I am so sorry for her loss. Most of all, I am so happy the two of you found each other. You offered her a wonderful life & she was so deserving of that.

Barb & I go way back to the days when her name was Quelle. Jim & my husband were suite mates long ago at the University of Chicago. After my husband finished law school we all lived in Los Angeles at the same time for a few years.

I am so glad she was able to have these years together with you & am so sorry for this horrific loss.

My name is Juliana Hill Howard...I am on Facebook...just no more words I am so shocked. Take care of yourself.
