“ Rest in peace, my "favoritest aunt". I'm Not really Charlotte's niece, at least by blood. I'm Bub's baby cousin, Sunni, and from my earliest memory, Charlotte has always been my aunt, my favorite as stated. When I was knee high to a grasshopper, I fell into my great grandmother's cactus garden. I was loaded with needles and Charlotte was the only person I asked to help me. I didn't want anyone else. Aunt Charlotte was nice to me and smelled like pickles (the result of a pretty horrible sunburn). From then on, Charlotte was family for me, sometimes more than other people in my direct family seemed. I will never be able to return to Kentucky with the same joy that I'll be seeing my Aunt Charlotte. I'll miss her every day. Rest in peace, my crazy bingo lady

“ I'm so sorry, Mamaw. I know my brothers and I haven't gotten to see you as often, but you were always there for us. We will never forget the happy times we had together. We're going to miss you so much. We love you very much. Rest in peace.
