“Marilyn and I were very, very good friends in our young days. We would usually be at one another’s houses most of the time. We even painted our bedroom ceilings the very same blue! We also worked at the same company and rode together to work. After Marilyn married and I moved to Seattle we lost track of one another for years but we reconnected a few years ago and it was wonderful to have that connection once again. She was a blessing to all who knew her and I send my heartfelt sympathy to all family members and friends. She was very special.
