

Noble McKinney

January 29, 2012 - May 3, 2012

Noble McKinney, age 88 of Lyon County, died at 5:30 a.m. today, May 3, 2012 at his home on Liberty Church Rd. He was a member of Liberty Baptist Church where he was a deacon and Sunday school superintendent for over 20 years, had retired from SKW Alloys in Calvert City and had farmed all his life. He was preceded in death by one brother Tasco McKinney, two sisters Opal McKinney, Dora McKinney and three infant siblings Nora, Dollie and Ollie McKinney. His parents were Emmett and Ida Bell Stone McKinney. Survivors include his wife of 63 years Dorothy Dunning McKinney, one son James Noble McKinney of Lyon County, two daughters Vicky Carter of Franklin, TN, Jennifer McKinney of Nashville, TN, two grandchildren, Russell McKinney of Princeton, Jeremy McKinney of Nashville, TN, three great grandchildren, Tori, Abby, and Carter McKinney. Also surviving is one brother Norvell McKinney of Hanson, KY. Funeral services will be held at 1:00 p.m. Saturday, May 5, 2012 at Dunn's Funeral Home in Eddyville with Rev. James Holsapple officiating and burial will follow in Pleasant Hill Cemetery. Friends may call from 4 until 8 pm Friday at Dunn's.