“ Sorry for your loss. I remember when you would rack up the pool balls at Old Eddyville. You were just a child.

“ So sorry about Raymond. I enjoyed talking to him when I ran into him in Eddyville. He always called me brother and always knew I was associated with the Baccus family from Between the Rivers. I will miss seeing him, he was certainly a good man.

“ I remember so well how uncle Popeye would take all of us kids into the bedroom to listen to his little hand held radio when we went to his and grandmothers house. I can see him now waving that radio around in the air trying to get a station in. Sometimes I think uncle Popeye thought it was an airplane.
