“ I am so sorry for your loss Tim and Family. What a wonderful Lady she was. Always uplifting to me just to have a conversation with Shirley. All of our loss is Heaven's gain. Love you all and will be praying for you. Wish it was where I could be there.

“ I remember Aunt Maxine laughing and her rapier wit. Maxine had the best sense of humor. I remember that funny look she would give me when I said something off color. She knew my father (her brother) Will Joe better than anyone. She called him Corky and as a child that always made me laugh. I remember that one Christmas Eve that we shared when I think Tim and I were 12. Great Uncle Lane was there. I remember the warmth. Everybody laughing. Christmas Day we went to Grandma and Grandpa's house on the farm. We would all sit in anticipation while Grandma passed out the presents. Tim loved that. And so did I. Auntie you will be missed. Godspeed.
