

Vernon Bradley Guess

May 6, 1931 - August 19, 2015

Vernon Bradley Guess, 84, of Kuttawa, Kentucky, died a Wednesday, August 19, 2015, at his residence.

He was born on May 6, 1931. He retired as a supervisor at SKW Alloys in Calvert City. He also was a farmer. Vernon was a member, deacon, and trustee of Macedonia Baptist Church and served on the Kentucky Farm Bureau Board, Fire District #2 Board, the ASCS Board, and was a Kentucky Colonel. He was an Army Veteran.

Vernon is survived by his wife of 63 years Hazel Greenlee Guess; two daughters, LaVonn Rogers and husband Randall of Princeton and Lori Duff and husband Dennis of Kuttawa; one son Craig Guess and wife Susan of Paducah; one brother Ray Guess of Kuttawa; 15 grandchildren; 12 great grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by three sons, Vernon Bradley Guess Jr., Mark Anthony Guess and Joel Andrew Guess; one brother Major Guess; and his parents Bradley Guess and Madie Doom Guess.

Funeral services will be at 11:00 am Friday, August 21, at Macedonia Baptist Church, 3124 State Route 93 North, Kuttawa. Visitation will begin at 9 am until the funeral hour. Bro. Randall Rogers and Bro Bradley Rogers, his son-in-law and grandson respectively, will officiate. Bro Bryan Grigg will also officiate. Dunn's Funeral Home of Eddyville is in charge of arrangements.

Donations may be made to Macedonia Baptist Church or to the Macedonia Baptist Church Cemetery Fund, c/o Arnold Hyatt, 277 Hopewell Road, Kuttawa, Kentucky 42055.

Tribute Wall

RF

“ So sorry for your loss each and everyone of you are in my thoughts and prayers. God Bless.

Richie Fox - April 27, 2018 at 12:10 PM

PC

“ So sorry for your loss. Know that I am praying for your entire family.

Paula Choat - April 27, 2018 at 12:10 PM